10 Attorneys for Plaintiff

11 Costco Wholesale Corporation

12 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
13 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
14 SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

16 IN RE: CATHODE RAY TUBE (CRT)
17 ANTITRUST LITIGATION

Master File No. 3:07-cv-05944-SC
MDL No. 1917

18 This document relates to:
19 Case No. 3:11-06397-SC
20 COSTCO WHOLESALE CORPORATION,
21 Plaintiff,
22 v.
23 HITACHI, LTD., et al.,
24 Defendants.

DECLARATION OF DAVID J.
BURMAN IN SUPPORT OF COSTCO'S OPPOSITION TO THE
PHILIPS DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO COMPEL ARBITRATION

1 I, David J. Burman, declare as follows:

2 1. I am admitted pro hac vice in this action and am lead counsel for Plaintiff Costco
 3 Wholesale Corporation. I make this declaration based upon my personal knowledge.

4 2. My responsibilities in this case include coordinating with various plaintiff groups
 5 and liaison counsel, selecting and working with expert witnesses, making work assignments
 6 among our team, and determining the most efficient ways for Costco to address the overcharges
 7 it has suffered.

8 3. I first became involved in this matter two years before Costco filed its complaint.
 9 On November 6, 2009, the Indirect Purchaser Plaintiffs (“IPPs”) subpoenaed Costco and 10 requested that Costco produce transactional data related to its purchase and sale of CRT televisions
 11 and monitors. Attached as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of the IPPs’ Subpoena to Costco
 12 to Produce Documents, Information, or Objects or to Permit Inspection of Premises in a Civil 13 Action. On February 18, 2010, Costco produced its transactional data to the IPPs. The data
 14 identified 41 different Philips-branded CRT televisions that Costco sold during the conspiracy.
 15 Attached as Exhibit B is a true and correct copy of the February 18, 2010, cover letter that I sent 16 with Costco’s transactional data to counsel for the IPPs.

17 4. As is customary with cases of this size, the Court has required that Costco
 18 coordinate with the other direct action plaintiffs and identify liaison counsel. The Court has also 19 required that most discovery and pleadings be joint and not individual, and has set deadlines that 20 contemplated joint actions and disclosures. Accordingly, as a part of the direct-action-plaintiff
 21 group, Costco has agreed to share costs, tasks, experts, and work product with the other direct
 22 action plaintiffs. And the deadlines for completing those tasks are tied to the MDL schedule.

23 5. Up until early 2013, the Philips Defendants had not indicated to Costco that they
 24 were interested in arbitration, and instead displayed every indication that they wanted to litigate
 25 the merits of Costco’s claims in court, as Costco had decided was most efficient. In fact, I recall
 26 one conversation that I had with counsel for the Philips Defendants during the summer of 2012,
 27 during which counsel acknowledged that Costco was a major customer for the Philips
 28 Defendants, but did not mention that the Philips Defendants were considering arbitration.

1       6. Thus, Costco agreed to specific tasks and work product focused on another
2 defendant group, Hitachi, which did not sell CRT Finished Products to Costco, and have relied
3 on other plaintiffs to do such work against the Philips Defendants. Costco has spent hundreds of
4 hours and hundreds of thousands of dollars building out the evidence against the Hitachi
5 Defendants. If Costco were forced to proceed in a confidential arbitration in addition to the court
6 case, the arbitration would be a duplicative expense, and depending on the timing of the 7 arbitration Costco likely would have to build its own factual and expert case against Philips and 8 incur substantial additional expense.

10 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my 11 knowledge.

13 Executed this 21st day of October, 2013, at Seattle, Washington

AO 88B (Rev. 06/09) Subpoena to Produce Documents, Information, or Objects or to Permit Inspection of Premises in a Civil Action (Page 3)

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), and (e) (Effective 12/1/07)*(c) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The issuing court must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(I) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the issuing court for an order compelling production or inspection.

(II) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the issuing court must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to travel more than 100 miles from where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person — except that, subject to Rule 45(c)(3)(B)(iii), the person may be commanded to attend a trial by traveling from any such place within the state where the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the issuing court may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party; or

(iii) a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(c) Contempt. The issuing court may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena. A nonparty's failure to obey must be excused if the subpoena purports to require the nonparty to attend or produce at a place outside the limits of Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(ii).
